

ABRAHAM OF LONDON

Family Altar Liturgy

A gentle, print-ready liturgy for households and small groups — call/response, confession, song, and a blessing.

Abraham of London — 13 Oct 2025

<h2>Opening (Leader)</h2> "We gather to remember God's love, receive His peace, and commit to one good work."

<h3>Call & Response</h3> Leader: The Lord is near. All: We are not afraid. Leader: His truth is our path. All: We will walk in it.

<h3>Scripture (1–3 verses)</h3> Read slowly. Pause. Ask: "What word or phrase stands out?" One sentence each.

<h3>Thanksgiving (One line each)</h3> "I thank God today for..." (children first, then adults)

<h2>Intercessions (Names & Needs)</h2> Family: health, work, learning, relationships. Neighbors & friends: one name each; one practical help this week. Leaders & church: courage, wisdom, integrity.

<h3>The Lord's Prayer</h3> Our Father in heaven...

<h2>Micro-Commitments (One sentence each)</h2> Truth: One honest action I will take tomorrow is... Service: One small burden I can lift is... Presence: One device boundary I will keep is...

<h3>Blessing (Leader)</h3> "May the Lord bless you and keep you. Be strong and kind. Amen."
