Leadership Workshop — Standards that Endure <#>

The Standard <#>

The modern leader is drowning in input, starved of clear standards. This is a working session for principals, not performers. The goal is to exit with one structural decision that generates non-negotiable capital (financial, relational, or spiritual).

<Rule />

The Room (Chatham House Rules) <#>

- Small: 12–16 Principals (max).
- High Trust: No pitches, no photos, no attribution.
- Outcome Focused: We do not talk about the problem; we design the solution.

<blockquote> Who it's for : Principals who need clarity, not consensus. Men who want to lead their household first. </blockquote>

<Rule />

Focus Areas <#>

1. Internal Audit (The Standard) <#>

- The Altar: Where does your private practice need discipline?
- The Cadence: Design a weekly operating rhythm that protects time and focus.
- The Tone: Removing sarcasm and contempt from your speech.

2. External Leverage (The Strategy) <#>

A/L - Leadership Workshop — Standards that Endure

- Capital: Identifying high-leverage decisions in your business/mission.
- Stewardship: How to vet opportunities and decline distractions.
- Brotherhood: Building your band of brothers for accountability and defense.

<Rule />

<Note tone="key" title="Deliverables"> Attendees leave with a Personal Standards Blueprint, a Weekly Operating Rhythm, and a Pre-vetted Brotherhood Call Tree.

</Note>

<PullLine subtle> We don't just fight for access. We fight for impact. Something always happens. </PullLine>
