

Introduction

This covenant is for men who are serious about brotherhood - not in theory, but in practice.

It is not a legal document. It is a voluntary commitment to:

- Walk in truth
- Protect each other's destiny
- Refuse the culture of isolation, secret sin and silent collapse

You can read this together, sign it, and review it annually.

1. Commitment to Truth

We agree:

1. To speak truth in love, even when it is uncomfortable.
2. To reject flattery, gossip and half-truths about each other.
3. To share honestly about our pressures - financial, relational, emotional, spiritual - at an agreed rhythm.

> "No performance. No pretending. No man left to drown quietly."

3. Commitment to Responsibility

We agree:

1. To ask hard questions when we see drift - in faith, family, finances, or character.
2. To challenge each other's decisions where we see clear risk or self-deception.
3. To show up - not only in crisis, but in the ordinary rhythms of life:
 - birthdays, milestones, transitions, setbacks.

We are not saviours. But we are responsible brothers.

5. Practical Rhythm

We agree on:

- Primary rhythm:

- Example: 1x monthly in-person / online meeting (60-90 minutes).

- Secondary touchpoints:

- Example: weekly check-in message (voice note / short call).

We appoint a simple rotation:

- One brother coordinates the monthly slot.
- Another tracks key commitments/decisions.

Nothing fancy. Just deliberate.
