

PUBLIC • PREMIUM

Entrepreneur Operating Pack

The one-pager to keep you honest

<Callout tone="key" title="The Entrepreneur's Core Discipline"> The true test of a founder is not in the launch, but in the discipline of the weekly rhythm. </Callout>

Abraham of London • 2026-04-27

I. The Weekly Operating Rhythm (WOR)

Every week must begin with clarity and end with accountability. Use the Weekly Operating Rhythm (WOR) to enforce structure and prevent decision fatigue.

Daily Blocks

- Deep Work: 3 hours maximum of focused, high-leverage activity.
- Interface: 2 hours maximum for calls, meetings, and emails.
- Review: 30 minutes minimum for self-audit and planning the next day.

Weekly Flow

1. Monday (Plan): Set the top 3 objectives (O3). Clear the inbox.
2. Wednesday (Triage): Mid-week pulse check. Address the top operational risk.
3. Friday (Accountability): Review O3 progress. Financial pulse check (Cash/Forecast).

II. The Financial Triage Checklist

In times of uncertainty, clarity on cash is non-negotiable. This list is a survival checklist for cash-conservation mode.

III. 30-60-90 Day Planning

Use this framework to align your team and board on immediate, measurable goals.