Canon Reading Plan - Year One

Why a Reading Plan?

The Canon is not designed to be skimmed like a blog feed. It is an architecture.

Architectures are absorbed slowly, with tension, until they rewire how you see the world.

This Year One plan exists for three reasons:

1. Pace - so you are never overwhelmed, but never idle.
2. Retention - so key patterns lodge in memory and language.
3. Obedience - so reading is always paired with concrete action.

If you follow this plan with a humble heart and ruthless consistency, by the end of twelve months you will not simply have read the Canon-you will have begun to live it.

Month 1 - First Principles

Theme: Ultimate [Purpose]/(lexicon/purpose) & First Allegiance

Governing Question: Who owns my life, my gifts, and my story-really?

Recommended texts:

- The Architecture of Human [Purpose]/(lexicon/purpose) - Prelude sections
- The Canon: A Letter from the Author (resource)
- Key Scriptures: Psalm 8, Colossians 1:15-20, Romans 11:36

Anchor Practice (Weekly):

1. Read one section slowly.
2. Underline every phrase that names purpose, design, or ownership.
3. Capture a single sentence in your journal:

> "If this is true, then my life must change in this way..."

Month 3 - Households as Micro-Civilisations

Theme: [Family]/(lexicon/family) [Governance]/(lexicon/governance)

Governing Question: Is my household ordered like a covenant or like a hotel?

Pair the Canon's vision of the household with:

Weekly, ask:

- What is one behaviour we reward at home?
- What is one behaviour we tolerate that is quietly undermining our future?

Document your answers. Patterns are policy.

Leading a Reading Cohort

The Canon is best absorbed in small, serious cohorts, not mass broadcasts.

If you are leading others:

- Keep groups between 3 and 7 people.
- Require commitment, not curiosity. Missing more than two sessions is a pause.
- Start every gathering with:
- 5 minutes of silence
- One Canon paragraph, read aloud slowly
- One Scripture that anchors the theme
- End with one question:

> "What will you actually do with what you heard today?"

Anything less is entertainment, not formation.

ATTESTATION
